SENIORS IN ACTION

A senior at Eagle Rock is energetic, full of life, and packed with action. As the final days of high school approach, the senior is faced with the responsibilities of classes, planning future goals, social events, and maybe a job. Many are drained of their energy, "burned out," or suffering from "senioritis" after tons of tests and endless stacks of college applications, and job permits. Yet, in spite of the pressures, a senior still has the pep and energy to participate in activities and manage to make the school year action packed.

1987
SUMMER
LEAGUE
Char

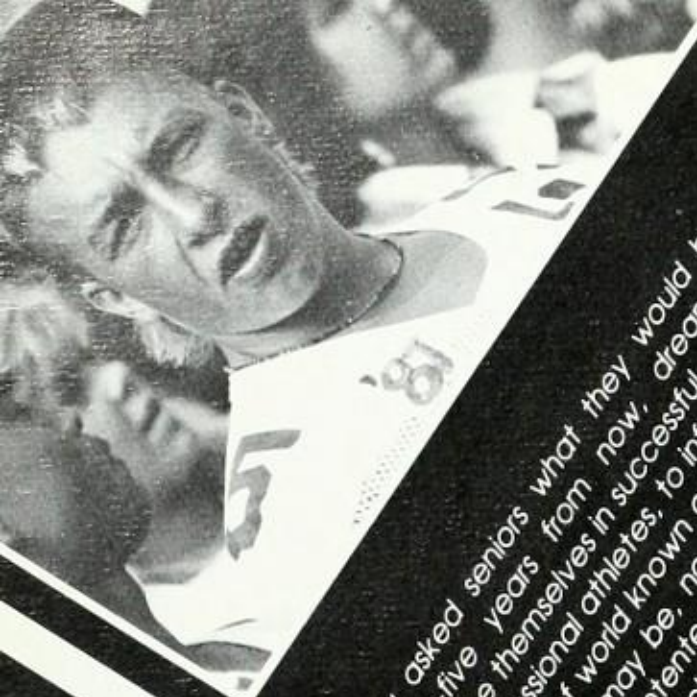

What is magical about senior year? It is the time when wonderful events happen which give seniors a lifetime of memories. These include the fun-filled Shakey's nights, the wet & wild car washes, the scrumptious senior breakfast, the ever awaited Senior Prom, the breathtaking commencement ceremony, the festive grad-nite, and much more. Other mementos of importance to seniors are priceless senior portraits of dear friends, precious class rings, meaningful prom glasses, cherished yearbooks, and dignified (hard earned??) diplomas.

If you asked seniors what they would be doing twenty-five years from now, dreamingly, they would see themselves in successful careers ranging from professional athletes, to infamous movie stars, to owners of world known corporations. Whatever their career may be, no matter how far-fetched, they would contentedly be residing in a glamorous mansion and probably be driving a flashy exotic sports car. However, in June, 1988, a summer vacation to the Hawaiian or Caribbean Islands is probably the furthest future plans that are in mind.

SENIOR DREAMS

SENIOR PROM

The Senior prom at the Disneyland Hotel lived up to its expectations of glamour and brilliance Saturday evening, March 19, 1988. The spectacular Embassy Ballroom provided the perfect setting for the breathtaking event. Laughter and excitement filled the air as the formal affair progressed. Guests waited with anticipation for the announcement of the Prom Court. A cloud of silence hovered throughout as the court opened the dance to the theme song, "Never Say Goodbye." Cherished moments of this night would be forever captured in the memories of Seniors.

Dearest Barbara,
Well sweetie, I guess
This is pretty much

Dear Barbara,
Another sucky year ha? (I mean about the school in general!) Although we hardly talk I know that you are ~~sweet~~ very sweet and thoughtful friend. Well are you going to do anything this summer besides partying? Whatever you do, I hope you have a great time. Are you going to come back to this school next year? If you do, I'll see you in September. Thanks for being a good friend and have a wonderful summer.

Too Hot To Handle

Varsity Cheerleaders

Over the summer, the vivacious Varsity Cheerleaders attended the U.S.A. Cheerleading Camp at Santa Barbara to prepare for the upcoming year. They brought back the "Hardest Working Team" award. Led by Captain Tracy DeSanctis, the cheerleaders supported the football, volleyball, and basketball teams by introducing sprightly rallies during nutrition. Their dedication was manifested by devoting days of practice, before and after school, for the Homecoming pep rally. Contributing much of their time, effort, and money, the magnanimous cheerleaders made Hell Week a memorable event for all. Front Row: Cheryl Swanson, Jennifer Wong, Heather McConnell, Alicia Valenzuela Back Row: Julie Miller, Maria Ibay, Tracy DeSanctis, Mirry Choi

BEE Football

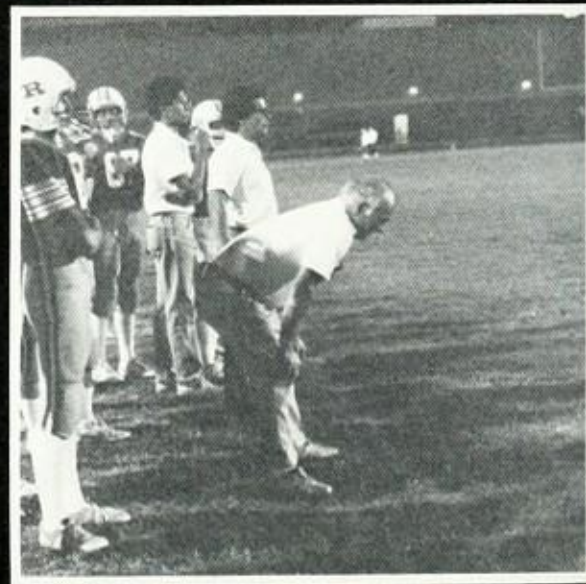

The BEE Football team returned from the dead in '87 with blood in their eyes. Led by Coaches John Hause, Gil Espino, and Eddie Bonilla, they slashed and hacked away at their opponents, decapitating drive after scoring drive and denying the mercy of even a field goal. Captains Dean Bednar, David Morales, and Anastacio Martinez helped the monsters of the Eagle midway stop virtually all of their league victims dead in their tracks. They departed triumphantly from the carnage of the '87 season and settled back into dormancy for another year — ending the Nightmare in the Northern League.

VARSITY FOOTBALL

Before the opposition knew it, the infamous Eagles had pulled off another perfect caper. Under the tutelage of their godfather, Dennis "Mad Dog" Shaw, the Eagles eased into formation, being ever so nonchalant. Then the crime was executed: they struck with the sweet rat-a-tat-tat of a Tommy gun, led by the intensity of the notorious Chuck Engel-Manny Washington Combination, and taking the gang to a swift getaway. All in all, the Eagles made the opposition an offer they couldn't refuse. Dressed To Kill

MARCHING BAND

This is the story of a teacher named Gibble, who has been teaching at Eagle Rock High School for only one entire year. This is the story of a group of musicians who were busy playing music of their own. They were thirty-five members who played together yet they were all alone. Till one year when this teacher met this marching band, and they knew that it was much more than a hunch that this group would keep on getting better. That's the way they all became the Marching Band. The Best Of The Best

Frosh-Soph Cross Country

Just sit right back and you'll hear a tale, a tale of a fantastic trip, that started from Griffith Park on a rugged, dusty trail. Grace Ullom was a mighty coaching chick, the Captain brave and sure. Eleven runners set out that day on a three mile run, a three mile run. The weather started getting rough, the tired team was drenched. If not for the endurance of Ryan and Ian, the race would be lost, the race would be lost. The team set ground on the terrain of this hilly, tangled path, with . . . VARSITY CROSS-COUNTRY

Somewhere over the Pacific . . . We engaged in an attack, and although the other side denied the incident, I congratulate you. Thanks to the high flying maneuvers of Antonio Ojinaga and his wing man, John Varela, we were able to bank left and soar to victory. The Top Gun Team blew the enemy away with speed and accuracy. The Medal of Honor went to the fearless leader, Grace Ullom, call sign "The Ullominator", who instructed these elite high-flying Eagles. Once again let us rest safe, knowing that there were such dedicated young men who flew their way to victory. They are . . . Calling all cars . . . calling all cars . . . this is an A.P.B. Be on the lookout for a pack of fugitives on the run. Heading the pack is the infamous Aileen Cho, whose speed is her lethal weapon, and Andrea Reyes, who is taking great strides towards her escape. Also, be alert for the traitor guard, Grace Ullom, from the prison exercise yard, who is said to be responsible for an amazing breakout of speed and energy. We request that any available officers proceed to Griffith Park and engage in this cross country chase to recapture these Eagles, who have flown the coop and escaped from Alcatraz. They are . . . All's quiet in the Northern League. The reign of terror ensued as the Eagles' swift air attack swooped upon their hapless victims. Led by Coach Dorothy "Baron Von" Teola, and squadron leaders Veronica "Cold Blooded" Quintana and Becky "Exterminator" Olsen, the Eagles shot down their opposition. Scoring kill after kill, the Eagles valiantly and triumphantly ventured into enemy territory, taking no prisoners. Though a great task, the Eagles battled new adversaries in the dangerous airspace known as the City Playoffs. The fearless squad proved their strength and unity and overcame the great odds against them by skillfully outmaneuvering their opponents in sortie after sortie, reaching the hallowed City Finals. That was the feeling team member Won Bin Bang had when the CEE Basketball team reached the goal they were striving for — to become the 1987-88 Northern League champions. TRACK TEAM Yes, sports fans, it was that time of season for thrilling afternoon brawls and social interaction. Time to get out those torn but trusty sneakers and baggy sweats. Didn't the aura speak for itself? No, it wasn't football! It was track season! Runners and jumpers in green garments damp with perspiration, not sweat. They were those female speedsters making up the Girls Track Team. Thanks to the coaching of their loving but deadly coach, Grace Ullom, the girls maintained a consistent threat to all. You've heard of Hamlet, Macbeth, Romeo, and Juliet, Frost, Shakespeare, and other famous poets. But do you recall, the most famous play production of all? Drama the Dynamic Dreamers, had a very talented bunch. And if you ever saw them, you would like to buy them lunch. All of their competition, envied them and called them names. They were just all jealous, because our drama had all the brains. Then one sunny short-ened day, Mr. Donn Keith came to say, "I'm producing Fame, Up The Down Staircase, David And Lisa. Why don't you come and join my plays?" Now the whole school knows them, as they shouted out with glee, "Drama the Dynamic Dreamers. They'll go down in history!"

ALUMNI BASKETBALL GAMES WED. 4:30 - 9:00

Step Right Up

Advancing quickly to the top of the charts, the Eagle Rock basketball teams demonstrated their award winning performance against the teachers on Alumni Night, Nov. 25, 1987. As "Hungry Eyes" watched, the "Red Hot" Eagles looked "Like A Child" at play, the "Father Figure" teachers "Let Go" of their chance to beat their opponents. "Dreaming", "What's It Gonna Take" to win, the Eagles tried to "Make It Real" with their performance throughout the whole night on their "Magic Carpet" with "The Devil Inside" each and everyone of them.

From "Out Of The Blue" students from 7th to 12th grade had the "Opportunity" of signing up for clubs during club fair. "Everybody" tried to "Get Into The Groove" of being members of the various clubs. People did not wonder "Where Do Broken Hearts Go" because joining a new club was the "Greatest Love Of All."

CONTRADICTION: The controversy over Nicaraguan aid was still an issue this year and would surely be a question for the Presidential candidates as the 1988 election drew near. How the new President would handle the issue, whoever he would be, would surely influence his campaign. The irony about the situation as it stood, however, was that the President would not have been able to get enough support to pass Contra aid through Congress if not for the political blunders of the Sandinista government and President of Nicaragua himself.

VICTORY: In Korea, President Roh's rivals had stated that he could only win by fraud and maintained their belief when he was announced the victor.

GLASNOST: Soviet leader Mikhail Gorbachev made a spectacular impression on the American people with his visit to America late 1987. The summit with President Reagan resulted in a treaty that called for the ban of medium and shorter range nuclear missiles from Europe and Asia. The Russians had hoped to eliminate more, but Reagan clung tightly to his SDI program and kept any further progress from happening.

MONKEY BUSINESS: The Soviet spacecraft that was launched with numerous animals aboard, was brought down prematurely by the moneyhater, Yerosha (Russian for troublemaker), when he worked a hand free and went ape pushing control panels.

MAGIC CARPET RIDE: The Persian Gulf was a dangerous area for the 500 ships that traveled those waterways. This seaway, responsible for about 15 percent of the world's crude oil, was plagued by mines, attacks by tankers and U.S. ships by Iraqi jets and Iranian missiles. The U.S. struck back by destroying an oil rig Iran was using to stage speedboat attacks.

AID FOR AIDS: The struggle for AIDS continued, but a cure or vaccine was yet to be found. Drugs were formulated, however, that supposedly slowed the progress of the disease and helped the patient feel better, but these drugs were still no cure, and the disease was still a killer.

ACCIDENTAL VACATION: The teenage pilot from West Germany, Mathias Rust, buzzed Red Square and landed his aircraft there for a four year sentence to a Soviet labor camp.

GOOD FORTUNE: Baby Jessica, an 18 month old Midlands, Texas, toddler, was rescued after she fell into an abandoned well, while the whole country held its breath with anticipation.

OLLIE FOR PRESIDENT: The scandal of the year was the Oliver North trial, that showed us a glimpse of the things our governments should not be able to do, without the consent of the people. The President claimed lack of memory concerning the matter of whether or not he knew of the shipments to Iran and the Contras.

EASY COME EASY GO: On October 19th, Black Monday, the New York stock market took a beating. The Dow Jones Industrial Average dropped a horrifying 508 points, which meant that 500 billion dollars were lost, a sum equal to the gross national product of France. The lost dollars could also buy 3,571 Empire State buildings, a 1,432 pound diamond, or pay for 50 trips to the planet Pluto in a New York taxi cab (not including gas).

MAKING THE ROUNDS: Gary Hart surprised many people with his announcement that he would re-enter the race. Many thought Hart down and out after a possible fling with Donna Rice was exposed, but Hart was out to prove them wrong.

AN OPEN SEAT: President Reagan nominated Bork for the Supreme Court, but Democrats and Liberals succeeded in stopping him from rising to the position.

STAND BY ME: The PTL collapsed in 1987 due to the revelations of a sex fling by Jim Bakker that he attempted to cover up by bribery. Jimmy Swaggert, another TV evangelist had a similar problem with a sex scandal, and also fell from grace.

213-828-2555 LISTEN: Child abuse has been on the rise and has been brought to new light by the death of six year old Lisa Steinberg who was killed by repeated blows to her head from her parent.

ROYAL BLUE: The Duke and Duchess of York, Andrew and Fergie, visited Southern California in the beginning of 1988. They came to Los Angeles itself, in fact, and went to many of our shops and pleased many crowds with their presence.

SHAKE '87: On October 1st at approximately 7:42 AM, an earthquake centered in Whittier shook a scary reminder into many people in the area. The students at Eagle Rock handled the 5.9 quake rather well, with an exceptional student that carried a handicapped person from the main building (in the immortal words of Mrs. Webster a "TRUE EAGLE"). After the quake and the numerous aftershocks, school was dismissed for the rest of the day. The quake resulted in a few deaths, but those that occurred were tragic reminders of how we should all be educated on earthquake safety.

COOL IT: The 1987 winter brought with it some record low temperatures for many areas in Southern California. In some places snow was a possibility as temperatures dived into the 30's.

VATICAN VISITOR: The Pope came to California this year and visited the cities of San Francisco and our own Los Angeles. School began a day late so that students could go to see the Pope.

FAREWELLS: During this past year we as fans have seen many of our favorite stars and starlets leave us as well as many important political figures. To them we all bid farewell.

SPORTS REVIEW: It is difficult to say what were the most outstanding events in the world of sports during 1987-1988, but there certainly were many memorable ones.

WINTER GAMES: The 1988 Winter Olympics held in Calgary, Canada, were a mixture of triumph and tragedy for the U.S. competitors. Brian Boitano brought the first gold medal of the Olympics defeating his Canadian rival, Brian Orser, in the figure skating competition. Bonnie Blair speed skated for a gold medal and a world record. On the other side of the coin, speed skater Dan Jansen, racing just after his sister's death, took a spill. Four days later, he went down again 200 meters short of the finish. Downhill racer Pam Fletcher crashed into a skiing maintenance worker the day before she was to compete. Debi Thomas stumbled and settled for a bronze medal while Elizabeth Manley wore the silver and Katarina Witt received the gold.

HOOPSTERS: In basketball, the Los Angeles Lakers disposed of the defending champion Boston Celtics in six games with plenty of help from 1986/1987 MVP Magic Johnson.

SLUGGERS AND LOVERS: Frank Viola, the World Series MVP led the Twins to a 4-2 victory over the Cards in game seven, while in tennis, seventeen year old Stefi Graf became the youngest woman ever to win the French Open defeating Martina Navratilova. However, at Wimbledon, Martina redeemed herself by capturing her sixth straight women's title. Australian Pat Cash cashed in on his first crown.

ROCKYS AND BRUTES: Mike Tyson, at 21 years of age, became the youngest heavyweight champion ever.

He captured three titles — WBH, WBC, and IBF. Crowds at Super Bowl XXII, held in San Diego, saw the Washington Redskins defeat John Elway and the Denver Broncos. The coveted Heisman Trophy went to fleet receiver Tim Brown. Hockey fans skated through seven games until the Edmonton Oilers won their third Stanley Cup in four years beating the Philadelphia Flyers.

PUTTERS: One stroke made the difference at the U.S. Open when golfer Scott Simpson beat Tom Watson. Larry Mize sunk a 140 foot chip shot in a sudden death playoff to defeat Greg Norman in the Masters.

TIME OUT: In the world of sports, there were many exciting games, playoffs, and finals. However, what really stands out above all the winners, losers, competitors, sportscasters, referees, and judges are the hundreds of hours of endless commercials.

MOVIE TIME: Speaking of movies... Theresa Russell, never a box office hit until along came a spider and fame sat down beside her in Black Widow... and is Sly slipping? There was that exciting film about arm wrestling, Over The Top, for which he pocketed $12 million and laughed all the way to the bank as he said goodbye to Brigitte Nielsen after only nineteen months. Emilio Estevez lacked Wisdom in his directional debut, but who wouldn't trade places with Bruce Willis for a Blind Date with Kim Basinger? When Beverly Hills Cop II opened, the critics pounced... but so did the audiences... total: $153 million (#1 box office hit)... and Ishtar lost $37 million to become one of the all-time sand suckers. If you're into heavy metal... then you must have loved Robocop or have a secret desire to join the tank corps. The Princess Bride won the fairy-tale of the year award while Platoon deserved its 1987 Oscar for Best Picture. Tom Selleck hit the bottle along with Ted Danson and Steve Guttenberg in Three Men And A Cradle while Goldie Hawn and Kurt Russell went Overboard together. Michael Douglas certainly had a Fatal Attraction for Glenn Close while Less Than Zero certainly lived up to the title. Predator did well with Arnold What's-his-name and the Best Casting should go to Danny DeVito for picking Momma Ann Ramsey in Throw Momma From The Train. Hurt plus Hunter equals HIT in Broadcast News. And last, but not least, an award to Richard Gere, who for the first time in years didn't make a bad movie (he didn't make any movie.)

BEAUTIFUL BIMBOS: You are innocent until proven guilty; innocence was a much sought after quality this year and those who weren't: secretary of the year Fawn Hall, a former church secretary Jessica Hahn, and actress Donna Rice. They ended the year in bimbo limbo — Fawn at the Pentagon keeping track of shredder maintenance, Jessica shedding her image by stripping for Playboy, and Donna bombing as an interviewee on 20/20. And if that wasn't enough, this was the last year the National Pork Queen was crowned because the Pork Producers Council cancelled the pageant as inappropriate. But not to worry... it seems that the Russians were willing to step in to fill the gap as they held the first known beauty contest in Soviet history, in Irkutsk, Siberia, which was won by Lyudmila Semdyakina, a student at the institute of Railway Engineers... Glasnost at its best, eh?

SLEEPING BEAUTY AWARD: To Captain Glenn Brindel of the USS Stark, for being asleep at the switch and allowing his ship to be rocketed by the Iraqis.

AGE AND BEAUTY: How about it girls... most of the big heartthrobs took the plunge lately, including Tom Cruise, Tom Selleck, and Bruce Willis; and the oldest he-man of them all, Superman, struck 50 this year.

BEAUTY AND THE BEAST: Put Sean Penn and Madonna together and what do you get? Punch and Beauty. This guy had a longer rap sheet than Run D.M.C. It must have hurt his macho image because big mama out grossed him many times over, but guess what... in his new movie he was a cop. Oh yes, that fizzled farce Who's That Girl should have been entitled: Desperately Seeking An Audience.

OLLIE-OOPS AWARD: To Oliver North, whose testimony momentarily brightened the Iran-Contra hearings.

ANIMAL LAND: This year we found that sexy Spuds MacKenzie was a she, and that one of Michael Jackson's pythons ate his cockatoo.

ADVERTISING AND PROMOTION: An ad for Porsche noted that top speed is 152, let's see that's almost a hundred miles an hour faster than the legal speed limit on most roads in the U.S.... Among those items marketed in connection with the Pope's tour were a Popescope periscope and a Pope-on-a-Rope bar of soap... tacky, tacky.

WINNER OF THE YEAR: Bonnie Blair... came home with both the Gold and Silver from the 88' Winter Olympics in Calgary... she was the only multi-medalist from the U.S.A.

GRAMMY AWARDS: Record of the Year went to Paul Simon's Graceland. Album of the Year was The Joshua Tree by U2. Somewhere Out There was the Song of the Year. Whitney Houston captured the Best Pop Vocal Performance with I Wanna Dance With Somebody (Who Loves Me). Sting won the Best Pop Vocal Performance with Bring On The Night.

EMMY AWARDS: Max Headroom and Moonlighting dominated the screen, receiving three awards. Bruce Willis won an Emmy for Outstanding Lead Actor In A Drama Series, Moonlighting. Sharon Gless received an Emmy for Outstanding Lead Actress In a Drama Series, Cagney & Lacy. John Hillerman received an Emmy for Outstanding Actor In A Drama Series, Magnum, P.I. Michael J. Fox won an Emmy for Outstanding Lead Actor In A Comedy Series, Family Ties. The award for Outstanding Drama Series went to L.A. LAW.

OSCARS: The Last Emperor won nine Oscars including Best Picture of the Year at the 60th Annual Academy Award Presentation held at the Shrine Auditorium. Fatal Attraction's unfaithful husband Michael Douglas won the Oscar for Best Actor for his performance in Wall Street. Sonny Bono became the Mayor of Palm Springs a few days after his ex-wife Cher garnered her first Best Actress Oscar for her role in Moonstruck. For supporting roles in Moonstruck and The Untouchables Olympia Dukakis (cousin to Democrat Michael) and Sean Connery (alias 007-James Bond) received their first Oscars.

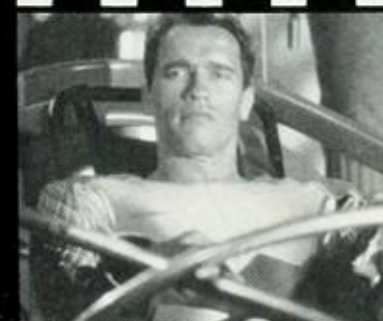

FADS OF 1988: Were people stuffing themselves in telephone booths? Were college students dining on goldfish? Were elementary school girls twirling hula-hoops? No, these were fads of the past; 1987-88 greeted us with a host of enough fads, fashions, expressions, and peculiarities to boggle the mind.

THREADS: What was everyone wearing? The big fashion statement of 1987-88 was acid washed anything: jeans, jackets, miniskirts, and shirts. Another ubiquitous sight were "Top Gun" flight jackets. Other fashion statements were spandex cycling shorts, bolero jackets, brown leather shoes, friendship bracelets, L.A. Gear shoes, and safari clothes. How did people wear their hair? Lots of guys bleached parts. Long hair was popular. Extremely short hair was popular. Tails, braided and unbraided, were seen as well as crimped and layered locks.

LIFESTYLES: Styles of living were varied. Homeless people made headlines; yuppies, dinks, and tweeners made money; television evangelists made money and headlines. Politicians seeking office were examined under the microscope of the public eye.

RED HOTS: Crack, gourmet popcorn, fajitas, wine coolers, transparent braces, colored retainers and contact lenses, liposuction, disposable cameras, mini-malls, Australians, royal couples, airline mileage clubs with triple miles, movies with babies in the title, and Vietnam movies.

Who knows what we will see next year? Hula hoop stuffing? Twirling fish? Swallowing telephone booths? WE WILL SEE!

TWO OF THE NICEST WAYS TO GET TO WORK IN HONG KONG EVERY DAY.

The Star Ferry is a great way to commute to Hong Kong. Singapore Airlines is another. Singapore Airlines is the only airline that offers daily flights from San Francisco aboard Big Top,[™] the world's most advanced 747. And day in and day out, we offer the kind of inflight service even other airlines talk about. SINGAPORE AIRLINES

Singapore Airlines is a partner in the American Airlines AAdvantage[™] program. AAdvantage is a registered service mark of American Airlines, Inc.

To all the insane seniors of Leadership: Babes, we're SET! Good luck to Ashlee, Cindy, Degma, Donna, Doug, Este, Grace, Haydee, Jeff, Ji, Josie, Maggie, Matt K., Matt W., Maria, Rachel, Ron, Shirley, Veronica, and Willy. Elvis will miss you.

Dear Paloma,

Cautious, careful people, always casting about to preserve their reputation and social standing, never can bring about a reform.

Those who are really in earnest must be willing to be anything or nothing in the world's estimation, and publicly and privately in season and out, avow their sympathies with despised and persecuted ideas and their advocates, and bear the consequences.

and fun loving and I

Barbara

Hi how are you, I am fine. I love you since the day I saw
you. I will draw you a picture of Satan. This is what Satan looks like, I know.

The other night I was sleeping and Satan came into my dream. He told me I can live a life in Hell or be a Satan lover. I don't know which one I will do but I will tell you.
Have fun this summer
and don't kill your self.
Call me for a hot time
255-5770

Love you
Kirk or Satan's Friend.
